GUEST SPEAKERS TO SHARE THEIR INSPIRING EXPERIENCES WITH COMPASSION IN HEALTHCARE

Hey everyone! If you are someone who is interested in pursuing a career in health care or are interested in finding out if this is the field for you, I would like to invite you to take this one unit course next quarter in which you will have the opportunity to hear first-hand from the experiences of various health care professionals including MDs, DOs, NPs, etc. and learning about how they work to remain compassionate when in their careers. No midterms, no finals, just graded based on participation one session a week and it is pass/no pass. Because it is seminar based, it is an excellent opportunity to network with other students and with these professionals as you will be able to them questions about their healthcare journeys or about other topics so I highly recommend for all you pre-health/pre-med or related majors.

4. St. George's University in Los Angeles - March 10

St. George's University is holding a live event, to be held on Sunday, March 10, from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. at the Sofitel Beverly Hills. We had our first SGULive: LA last March, and it was a big hit for students, their guests and even a few advisors. The afternoon is packed with great information about SGU, why SGU, financial aid/scholarships, the application process, and an opportunity for applicants to interview in person, but even more importantly, it is a great way to connect with SGU and our graduates.

More information about the event is available at: <https://www.sgu.edu/sgulive/la/>.

Wherever you are in your journey to medical school, our interactive in-person event will provide you the opportunity to:

EXPLORE

how SGU can help prepare you to be an outstanding doctor

DISCOVER

our MD program and personalized model of academic support, collaborative campus culture, post-graduate outcomes and expert career guidance

CONNECT

with our graduates to hear first-hand about their experiences at SGU and as practicing physicians

Events

- Greetings and Welcome: SGU Vice Chancellor
- "Doctors on Call!" SGU graduates share their experiences at SGU and beyond
- Information "Retations:" Learn more about applying to SGU, our interview process, financial aid and scholarships, and more
- Admissions: Take a virtual campus tour and speak with our Admissions team
- Graduate Reception: Speak 1:1 with graduates

RSVP and learn more at sgu.edu/sgulive/la

Food and beverages will be served.

The age of presidential candidates has become a salient concern, but age is not the only physical factor that should concern citizens. Presidents can also suffer various forms of illness, both physical and psychological. This talk highlights the nature of these concerns and how we might work to mitigate their impact on political outcomes.

Featured Speaker

Rose McDermott, PhD
Professor of International Relations
Brown University

Rose McDermott is the David and Mariana Fisher University Professor of International relations at Brown University and a Fellow in the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. She is author of five books and over two hundred academic articles encompassing topics such as American foreign and defense policy, experimentation, national security intelligence, gender, social identity, cybersecurity, emotion and decision-making, and the biological and genetic bases of political behavior.
